

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 4:21; sunset, 7:12.

Michael McCann, 1408 Washington blvd., acquitted of trying to kidnap Louise McLoughlin, 7, South Chicago.

James Dickson, 60, railway clerk, 1131 Foster av., suicide. Gun. Could not work.

Abe Podwar and Sadie Begun, in morals court, freed on showing marriage certificate.

Michael Lukich, laborer, probably fatally injured in dynamite explosion near Lemont.

Carter Practice school, 5740 S. Michigan av., to be opened today. Two children had diphtheria; place fumigated.

Aldrich Kyderna, 2223 S. Albany av., suicide. Rifle. Unable to find work.

Marion Bissell, 1735 W. 35th, sent to Bridewell for month. Extorted money from auto speeders; posing as policeman.

Mrs. Minnie Ulrich, 3559 S. Winchester av., suicide. Gas. No reason known.

Michael Devich told judge he lived on corn ten days while locked in a freight car. Freed.

Jacob Kantor and wife, sued for $10,000 by Mrs. Ruth Kwelberg, former friend. Slander alleged.

Fred Luxow, teamster, put on probation for year. Beat son, Howard, 8. John Goodman seeking annulment of marriage to Sarah. Says he was drunk when wedded.

Felix Devaney, engineer of steam roller, to do federal jury duty during convention week.

More testimony taken contradicting witnesses of Am. Medical ass'n who told of "Wine of Cardui" jags in libel suit against ass'n.

Mayor Thompson abandoned cards on which aldermen practically had to beg for peddlers' permits.

Leslie Dudley Carter, son of actress, lost in court when judge ruled he could be held for mother's debts.

Fred Gerard thrown from motorcycle to auto hood. Both legs broken. Geo. Christo, driver, held.

Federal officials probing conduct of John Pitts, "Dare Devil Daniel," drug suspect. Pitts claims to be champion roller skater of world.

Pasquale Grande sentenced to 14 years in pen. Shot and killed Chas. Rossi in fight over money.

Mrs. Geo. Kolb, 345 E. 61st, arrested for assault with auto. Drove car into store and hurt Laurette Lamb, 855 W. Garfield blvd.

Olaf Olsen, former cashier A. C. McClurg, book dealers, surrendered self on embezzlement charge. Believed to have lost $6,000 speculating.

Mrs. Millie Prpieskern and Fred Patterson both left notes to their mates and eloped. Mrs. P. took her two children along.

Auto loot worth $10,000 recovered by Detective Evans, who arrested Fred Wilhelm and Walter Drubeck.

Fred Otte struck by street car playing near home at Berwyn and Broadway. Concussion of brain.

John Hertz of Yellow Cab Co. offers $1,000 for arrest of four men who stole cab Monday night.

Body of man found in river identified as John Frawley, harness maker. Accidental death.

Aldrick Kuderna, 2223 S. Albany av., suicided with rifle because neighbors called him loafer.

LAMAR EXPECTED TO GIVE UP— MUST SERVE TWO YEARS

New York. — David Lamar, "the wolf of Wall street," sentenced to two years in Atlanta federal penitentiary for impersonating Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer, is expected to surrender to authorities in New York today. He will be taken to prison Friday.

Lieut. Rob't Fay, sentenced to eight years in Atlanta for conspiracy to blow up munitions ships of the allies, will be taken south with Lamar.